

Diploma of Community Services Work

+ Community Services Work www.equals.edu.au

Overview: This course equips graduates to work in the community services industry.

You will learn about counselling, program development, group work, advocacy, community development, communication skills and other strategies and interventions relevant to the community services industry.

Career Pathways: The Diploma of Community Services Work leads graduates into a range of occupations including:

- Welfare Officer/Worker
- Community Worker

Special Notes: Students should contact the Australian Institute of Community Welfare Workers (www.aiwcw.org.au) for IELTS and other industry requirements to practice as a Welfare Worker in Australia. Applicants will also need a current police clearance upon enrolment.

Overseas Health Insurance: All international students are required to have overseas health insurance cover for the duration of their course.

Entry Requirements: Students are required to have completed Year 12 (or equivalent), and English proficiency at a level of IELTS 5.5 (overall) or higher, tested within 6 months of application.

Qualification/Investment (AUD)/Duration:

Diploma of CSW $19,250.00 24 months
(approximate cost per semester is $4812.00)

Study Mode: Fulltime, 20 contact hrs per week

University Credit: Yes

Intakes: April, September

Qual Code: CHC50608 /CRICOS Code: 02804C

Further Info: We welcome you to contact us

International Contact: Khyati Gajjar

Phone: + 61 8 8110 1200

Email: internationaliaison@equals.net.au

Web: www.equals.edu.au